

Developing Story | June 3, 2011, 3:14 PM

Luca Bar Closed For Back Taxes

By STEPHEN REX BROWN, 20 Cooper Square and ANNA SANDERS, 20 Cooper Square

State officials have seized Luca Bar, the upscale bar and restaurant at 119 St. Marks Place, for non-payment of taxes. The bar, known for its European flavor, was seized last night, according to those who work on the block; a bright orange sign announcing the seizure had been taped to the bar's front window. The Local has reporters working on the story and we will provide more information as it becomes available.

Stephen Rex Brown

Luca Bar, 119 St. Marks Place.

E-mail This Print Recommend

Search

Previous post

◀ Another Chance to Howl

Next post

Luca Bar Owes \$31,000 in Back Taxes ▶

FEATURED POSTS

- More Details on Injured Con Ed Worker
- Con Ed Worker Stricken By Fumes
- Welcoming Our Summer Interns
- Your Voices | Aging in the East Village
- Abandon All Hope, Ye Who Graduate 📧 (1)
- Welcoming a Conversation Leader 📧 (3)
- Images of the Howl! Festival 📧 (1)
- The Day | Howl Was It For You?

